

Elopements & Honeymoons
on Lord Howe Island

Welcome to Paradise

If you're dreaming of a destination wedding that feels truly unique, heartfelt and untouched by the crowds — Lord Howe Island might just be your perfect match.

Located off the east coast of Australia, this tiny UNESCO World Heritage listed island is home to dramatic mountain peaks, vibrant coral reefs, lush subtropical forests and golden beaches — all within a walkable 11km stretch. With a strict visitor cap of just 400 people at any time, it's as close to a private island as you can get.

This is a place where you'll feel completely connected to nature, to each other and can live in the moment. Weddings here are deeply personal, shaped by the wild beauty of the island and the warmth of its close-knit community. Whether you're planning a barefoot beach elopement or an intimate ceremony overlooking our famous mountains, Lord Howe offers something rare and unforgettable.

Danielle from Love Lord Howe

Hi! I'm Danielle from Love Lord Howe — your dedicated planner and personal contact. I moved to Lord Howe in 2013 with my young family and quickly fell in love with its beauty and community.

Love Lord Howe grew from a passion for personalised island experiences into an award-winning small business. I now coordinate weddings, elopements and events, creating memorable moments that capture the island's essence.

As a local, I offer expert planning, trusted vendor connections and the flexibility island life requires — ensuring you're supported every step of the way.
